
Chicago Sun Foreign Correspondents Set

Here's possibly the nicest set in the entire Newspaper/Magazine category. In 1944, the Chicago Sun came out with an 18-cover set of famous foreign correspondents. If 1944 was your era, then most, if not all, of these 18 correspondents would also probably qualify as VIP/Personalities. For me, the only name I recognize is Ernie Pyle...but that's quite a name.

These Universal 20's all have the names on the outside in white on a light blue background. In 1944, you could have purchased them for...(groan!)...50¢. ...listing from Long Beach bulletin, May 1974
