

Some Interesting Covers

Here are six more reasons why this is such a fascinating hobby:

-Top left: "Talking pictures while you dine and dance"
(Advertisit Match Co.)

-Bottom left: Notice the word play on the front panel.

-Bottom 2nd: Reversed positions for footer and manumark.

-Bottom 3rd: Unusual subject matter!

-Top right: 10¢ steaks!

This is why I love to just sort through covers. You never know what you're going to run across—humor, history, errors, nostalgia...

Have any of your own favorites? Send a pic or scan with an explanation, and we'll share them with everyone else. [I can see all those heads nodding now!]
