

KNOW YOUR COVERS!

NORTHWESTERN PRTO . CHGO.

Northwestern Prtg is an old Chicago-based printing company from the 1930s, probably the latter 1930s.

You're not going to find any great artwork here. Most of these covers are the standard two-color design, as shown here. But, as with most of the old manumarked covers, artwork isn't the attraction; it's the history and the rarity.

Inundated with Universal, Ohio, Lion, Diamond and other such common covers, these covers do, indeed, seem rare. All the covers I've poured through over the last 30 years, and I've only been able to list 110 Northwestern Prtg. covers thus far [mostly wide-strikers]
