

2003 Redheads Aboriginal Art Set

Jerry Bell, editor of the Australian Match Cover Collectors' Society, graciously supplied me with these copies of the [then] new 2003 Redheads Aboriginal Art Set. There are 12 boxes [8 shown here] in this Australian set featuring an example of Aboriginal art on one panel and a "Match Trick" on the other. Each box is numbered. A very nice set with great art work. There have been a number of other Aboriginal-themed sets from Australia, as well.
