

Hobby Cover Errors!

by Mike Prero

The hobby has produced a lot of covers over the last 75 years, and, perhaps not surprisingly, its share of bloopers...at the very least! To be fair, the manufacturers were responsible for most of them, but the designers had their share. In any event, we have a wide variety of offerings here—I've left out all the miscuts and other production errors; these are all 'somebody goofed' errors...
