2012 Ukraine Lviv Set

The six covers seen here look like two different sets, but apparently they comprise one set, although I'm not sure that the set is complete.

The theme is Lviv, a city in Western Ukraine. Each cover features a different city landmark, and the text on the back panels is in both Russian and English.

Lviv was founded by King Danylo of Galicia and named in honour of his son Lev. The first record belongs to the chronicles mentioning the events of 1256. Lviv - one of the most picturesque cities in Europe, thanks to its combination of refined european culture with features of ukrainian traditions. The historic city centre is on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Thanks to Hans Everink, Netherlands, for this.
