2015 “Matches” Set from Denmark”

Our foreign correspondent in Europe mentioned that this was a 6-box set, but, reading the label in the upper right, it says 10 boxes. That may refer to the package rather than the set, though.

Notice the text on the text panel for each box is printed in five different languages. It also gives the artist's name.

A fairly nice set, especially if you like “pop art”.
